Excerpts from Dr. Martinson's Address at Opening Convocation, 1992

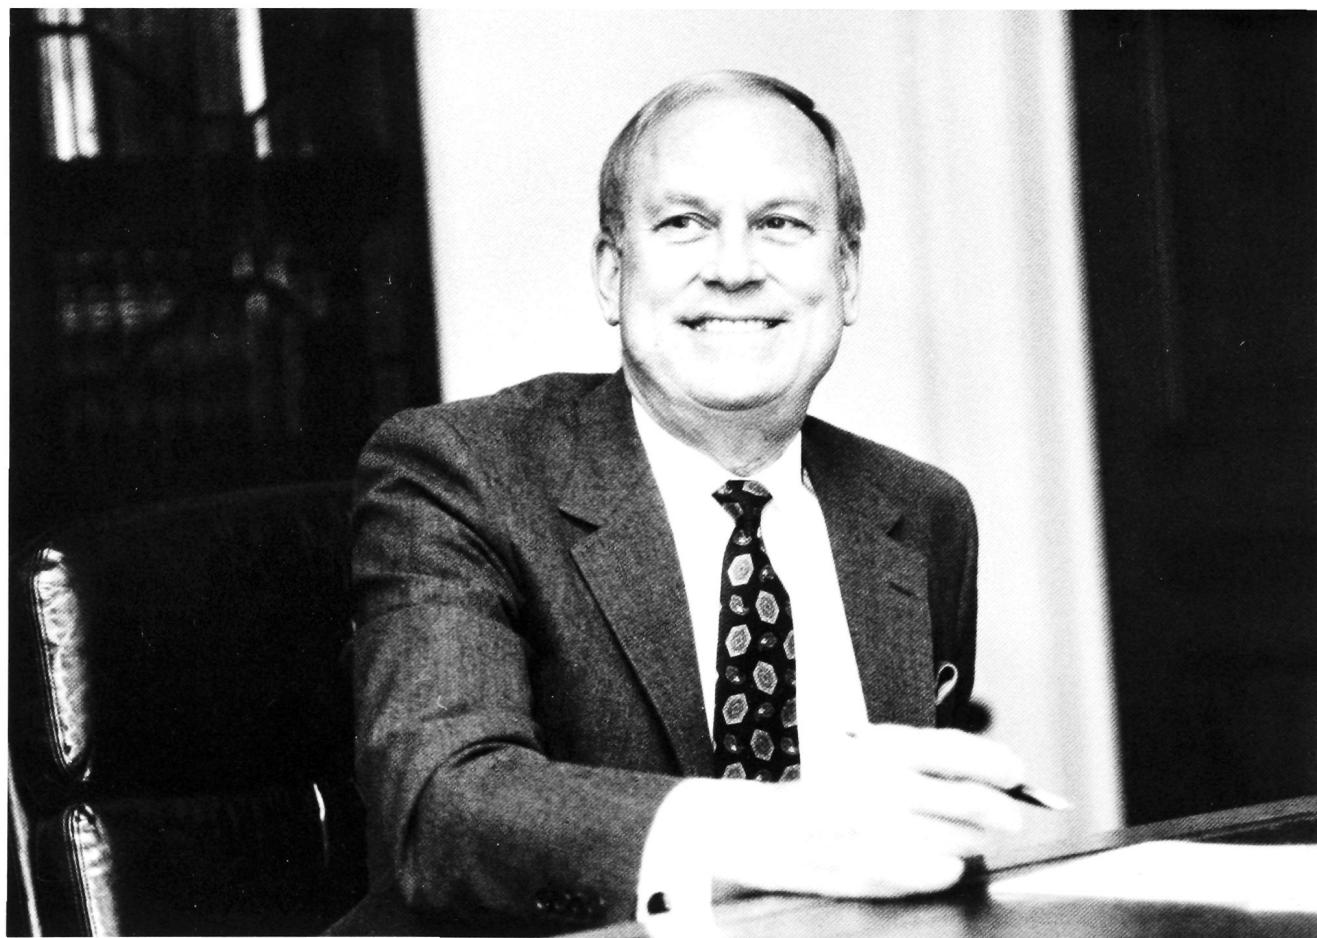

"I submit to you, young people, challenge the culture around you rather than reflect it.

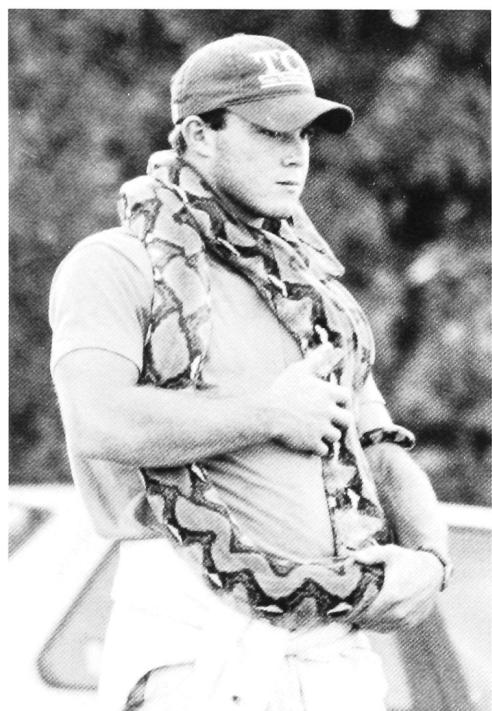

Following Hurricane Andrew, during a news broadcast in Louisiana the other day, a newscaster was standing by a levee, which is, simply put, a man-made embankment to prevent the Gulf from flooding the town. He said, 'We aren't worried about these levees. They have been here for years and have withstood many storms. But there is considerable concern about the new levees on the edge of town. Will they be able to stand? They've never been tested.' I think it speaks to the moral world. How do we stand the test?

Finally, learn how to care. You don't have to do that. It's not in the student handbook, but if caring and moral behavior were simply following the rules, we could program a computer to be caring and moral. I don't mean to be presumptuous, but I want to think that a graduate of High Point University is open, honest, serving, and one who cares."

What's the Point?

To some, the point of leaving home, the secure warmth of a hot meal every night and clean clothes all the time, is an easy thing to give up when one thinks about escaping to eternal freedom. That's what it is. The point of coming to school is to grow up into an independent, responsible mature adult. In some cases, though, four years is not really enough time. Through education, one finds direction, responsibility, and personal fulfillment. Education is an ongoing process that won't stop. Long after graduation, it continues to be a never-ending point.

WHAT'S THE POINT of the next four years?

Where do we go from here? That's a question most freshmen ask when entering college. It's hard to figure out all at once. The faculty and staff at High Point University offer a warm and caring environment that aid in helping new students in their transition. The upcoming four years will bring about many new experiences that will hopefully mold students into outstanding adults.

AN ENCHANTED EVENING

Homecoming was once again put on by Student Union Productions. It was an evening students from High Point University will remember in years to come. Brian Reid, a junior, said, "I remember not getting to the dance until 11:30 pm because there was a two hour wait at the restaurant."

Students started pouring in Market Square around 10:00 pm and partied until 1:00 am the next morning. Laura Rahuba, a sophomore commented, "It was okay, but I would have had more fun if I'd had a date."

One picture is worth a thousand words.

HOMECOMING EVENTS

Below: Kristy Scott and Chip Harris get ready for the parade.

The powder puff football game kicked off the 1992 Homecoming activities, with Kappa Delta taking home the trophy. On Friday afternoon many organizations participated in the parade. Phi Mu sorority won the float contest and the Gams won the spirit award. All who attended were quite impressed with the enthusiasm shown by the participants.

On Saturday morning there was a street fair followed by fraternity and sorority open houses. Saturday evening was the event all had been waiting for: the Homecoming Dance. Those who attended had the time of their lives. Alumni and parents who returned and visited were thrilled to have been a part of the festivities.

Kappa Delta

The Gamma Gamma chapter of Kappa Delta proves that we are "unique but united." We are involved in SGA, Student Union, intercollegiate sports, intramural sports, and other leadership positions on campus. Gamma Gamma has held numerous fundraisers to support our national philanthropy: The National Committee for the Prevention of Child Abuse. We also sponsored the annual Halloween party for the children at the YWCA. We look forward to a successful rush in January amidst all of our studies and activities. We have dedicated this year to the beautiful memory of sister Laury Ann Lynch, as we know that she continues to stand with us in our circle of friends. We love you, Laury!

The Epsilon Alpha chapter of Theta Chi had its biggest Fall pledge class in years accepting fourteen new pledges. The Brothers were involved in numerous on and off campus activities. They hold the brotherhood in the highest regard and are always there when another is in need. Friendship, scholarship and unity are the basis for the success of this chapter. Our most unique characteristic as a Greek organization is the strong bond that exists among the brothers. If you are looking for close personal friendships, you will find them at Theta Chi.

Lambda Chi Alpha

The Iota Phi Zeta chapter began its 39th year this year at High Point University. Through the dedication and hard work of every brother, it proved to be one of our most successful years in recent history. The outstanding academic achievement award was presented to us at the National Leadership seminar in Orlando last summer. We were represented in campus organizations such as SGA, Board of Stewards, IFC, Young Democrats, College Republicans, Student Orientation Staff, and the Odyssey Club, as well as inter-collegiate baseball, soccer, and golf. Last year the fraternity was named intramural champions of 1991-92. Lambda Chi Alpha is a chapter of which every member can be proud.

Alpha Gamma Delta

The Gamma Eta chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta has been very busy this year. In September we initiated eleven lovely young ladies. We have also been busy in the community, participating in the Crop Walk, the YWCA Halloween Carnival, the 1992 Greenway Race and various other community service activities. On campus we have been busy as well, bringing in second place at Greek Week, participating in intramurals, and winning the spirit award for our homecoming float. We were also very proud to have four Alpha Gamma Delta's on Homecoming Court. But, no matter where we were on campus this year, the great thing was that we were always together.

Delta Sigma Phi

We are Delta Sigma Phi, better known as the "Delta Sigs." Our fraternity was founded December 10, 1899, at the City College of New York. We received our chapter at the High Point campus on April 7, 1957. We have had many successful years here at High Point University and this is again another one. We set high standards of excellence in both academics and intramural sports. The March of Dimes is our major philanthropic agency. Our fraternity symbols are both the pyramid and the sphinx, and our fraternity colors are green and white. We are the "SIGS."

ΦM Phi Mu

The Gamma Zeta chapter of Phi Mu celebrated its 40th anniversary at High Point University this year, and did so with a bang, including the annual Phi Mu weekend which was a great time for all. Homecoming was a success for Phi Mu. We received the Best Float Award for the second consecutive year. Some of the activities we held this year included the Sisters Dance, Project Hope, The Children's Miracle Network, and the Senior Picnic. But best of all was the Phi Surprise, thanks to the assistance of Officer Friendly. We were also involved in a wide variety of activities such as Student Union, SGA, Tower Players, Psychology Club, American Humanics, and many more. The sisters of Phi Mu are looking forward to many great years together. The Phi Mu bond is forever!

STUDENTS STUDYING ABROAD

"Amazing," "Really cool," "A real education." These are just some of the terms used to describe the events, sites, and experiences enjoyed by those High Point students lucky enough to spend a semester in England studying at Westminster College in Oxford. "It's neat because you actually get to see a lot of sites that before you had only seen in books," says Sam Rankin. "You also get to meet people from different backgrounds and cultures, and to learn what things you have in common, as well as the differences," says Angie Yerkes.

Laury Ann Lynch

Laury Ann Lynch was a sister and friend to many at High Point. As a sister of Kappa Delta, Laury was a very active member. She held one of the most important council positions - that of Vice President of pledge education. The pledges learned from her by example: she strove to be the best - academically, physically, and spiritually. What she desired most was for everyone to get along. The love of Laury Ann Lynch remains among her sisters and friends as we hold on to our thoughts and memories of her.

INDEPENDENTS

Reflecting upon four years of independence at this wonderful institution, the word freedom immediately comes to mind. Not being affiliated with any specific Greek organization has afforded us many freedoms. As independents, we have the opportunity to be spontaneous. There are no set meetings or events of mandatory attendance restricting us. As independents, it takes initiative to be socially interactive with the so-called different groups on campus: jocks, Greeks, geeks, and freaks. Independents must seek their friends through this initiative, whereas other groups inherit friends. Moreover, after four years, we can honestly say that each organization seems to accept and appreciate our choice to remain independent. By being an independent, we're not a slave to our lives, but our lives become enslaved to our own hopes and dreams.

HOT SPOTS

for High Point students

Being a student at High Point University warrants frequent visits to the famous Alex's House. Students can be found there at all hours of the day and night. Another popular spot especially on Thursday nights is Ham's. Everyone likes to watch games on the big screen TV and prepare for the festive weekend activities ahead. Other famous hot spots include the lake and intramural field. Students like to throw the Frisbee, ride bikes and just relax with a group of good friends.

WEEKENDS

The Best Part of the Week

Yea! It's Friday afternoon and the weekend's finally here. Friday nights usually consisted of off-campus parties, fraternity and sorority mixers, dances or sporting events. Saturdays were made for relaxing. Movies and trips to Alex's were the norm for college students. Saturday nights students could be found participating in campus events such as concerts, student productions and special guest appearances. Sundays were spent cramming for Monday assignments and recuperating from the weekend festivities. Overall the weekends at the High Point were spent having fun and making memories with friends.

CLOSING THE POINT

As we come to the end of another year, we look back fondly on the memories we will carry forever. Friends, family, professors and all our peers have made an inevitable impact on our lives. High Point will forever be engraved on our souls. We carry a sense of incredible pride knowing that our years have had a Point in shaping us into mature young adults. Whatever we may do or wherever we may go, High Point University will always be a part of our journey.
